Monthly Financial

May Financial Statements - Chris Martin
Total revenues in May were better than projected by $61,000.
Total expenses in April were better than projected by $78,000.
We continue to end the year up in revenue, supported with increased tuition and fee revenues.
Expenses continue to be managed, which creates savings primarily in payroll, instructional supplies and equipment.
Cash inflows for the month were better than forecasted by $131,000 due primarily to student receipts and timing of grant funds.
Projected Year Ending cash balance $4.4 million

Proposed 2014 Budget
